Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
10th November Psalter Week 4 - Year C

First Reading: 2 Maccabees 7:1-2, 9-14

Looking at these seven brothers in Maccabees we see that their faith, passed on to them by their mother and their forbears, means everything to them. No matter what trials come their way, they show they are indifferent to suffering and they show as much to the king who is forcing them to walk from the faith they love.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 16

I shall be filled, when I awake, with the sight of your glory, O Lord --

Second Reading: 2 Thessalonians 2:16-3:5

Saint Paul offers the blessing of the Lord Jesus Christ and prays for God's grace for those he writes to, and by extension – us. It reminds me of Pope Francis who, before he gave us his first blessing in St Peter's Square after he was elected, asked us to pray for him.

Gospel: Luke 20:27-38

The Sadducees are out to trick Jesus yet again. We see him encounter opposition to his ministry all through the Gospels. But Jesus is there to continually remind us that our true homeland is in heaven and in heaven we live in a new way to the way we live now.

Recently Deceased

Please pray for the happy repose of the souls of:
Par Smith who died recently

Marie Shearer whose months mind occurs at this time.

For all whose anniversaries are at this time and those whose names are included in the Book of Remembrance. For all those names are included in the November Dead Lists and especially for the souls who have no-one to pray for them.

May they rest in peace

Year of Faith .....Special Mass .....

Aifreann Feirste.....Sunday 17th November 7.0pm

What better way is there of bringing the Year of Faith to a close than to recall the example and heroic sacrifice of our forefathers in keeping the Faith alive in Ireland during the persecution of the Penal Days?. The Parish Pastoral Council are pleased to announce that Patrick Davy ,who composed this Aifreann Feirste with this intention in mind, has agreed to present his special musical composition on Sunday 17th November at 7.0pm here in St Anne's. We are also delighted that Bishop Donal McKeown has agreed to concelebrate the Eucharist, a traditional Sunday Mass, with Fr. Feargal that evening. He officiated when this composition was first performed in St. Mary's Church, Chapel Lane in 1992. A bi-lingual Mass booklet has been produced for use on the evening and this will serve as a souvenir of this great occasion.

Everyone is invited to join us for this very special Mass and to enjoy refreshments with us afterwards in the Parish Centre where you will be able to meet Bishop Donal, Patrick Davy and his team of 51 musicians and choir.

It promises to be a memorable evening of prayer and reflection so we do hope you can join us.

A voluntary collection will be taken up on leaving the church to defray costs.

It promises to be a memorable evening of prayer, reflection and craic!
