Palm Sunday
13th April 2014 Year A Psalter Week 2

First Reading: Isaiah 59:4-7

The disciple referred to in Isaiah is exemplified in Jesus. For most of us, this truth of Jesus is self-evident, however the disciple is also each one of us. As disciples, too, we must first listen before we are able to speak. It is through listening we are enabled to speak. It is through the listening that we are enabled to speak and then the urge to proclaim what is heard transcends the hardships and negativity of life

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 50
My God, My God, why have you forsaken me? -

Second Reading: Phillipians 2:6-11

This beautiful hymn from the Letter to the Phillipians captures the essence of Jesus in his human nature. The letter at the same time captures the true humanity of all of us. Each one of us, made in the image and likeness of God, have our source of life hidden in the depths of our being

Gospel Matthew 26:14-27:66

Joy and expectation flow from this reading as the crowds celebrate Jesus at his arrival in Jerusalem. It is a wonderful moment which foretells of his greater triumph when not branches and clothes are trod under foot but suffering and even death itself.

Recently Deceased

Fast & Abstinence for Catholics

The required fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday involves eating only one full meal on those days. One or two smaller meals may be taken on those days, but may not total one full meal. The required fast does not allow eating anything between meals. All Catholics who have completed their fourteenth year are bound by the law of abstinence; all adults are bound by the law of fast up to the beginning of their sixtieth year. Nevertheless, pastors and parents are to see to it that minors who are bound by the law of fast and abstinence are educated in an authentic sense of penance.
