Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time
17th November Psalter Week 1 - Year C

First Reading: Malachi 3:19-20

Malachi is a prophet who reminds us that there are consequences for our actions.
If we do evil it will harm us and others. When we do good; it makes us happy and adds to the happiness of others. And in our good works, the light of God shines through.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 97

The Lord comes to rule the peoples with fairness --

Second Reading: 2 Thessalonians 3:7-12

Saint Paul encourages honesty among the people he is writing to because there seems to be unfairness among them. The willing horse carries the heaviest load is an old saying but this is not fair. Collaboration is always a recipe for harmony in our lives.

Gospel: Luke 21:5-19

Jesus is telling those who are following him, and his disciples that there will be challenges ahead for them. There is no doubt that following him has its benefits, especially when they witness his powerful deeds and hear his words at close quarters. But he is saying that the cross is never too far from a believer and a disciple.

Year of Faith .....Special Mass .....

Aifreann Feirste.....Sunday 17th November 7.00pm

What better way is there of bringing the Year of Faith to a close than to recall the example and heroic sacrifice of our forefathers in keeping the Faith alive in Ireland during the persecution of the Penal Days?. The Parish Pastoral Council are pleased to announce that Patrick Davy ,who composed this Aifreann Feirste with this intention in mind, has agreed to present his special musical composition on Sunday 17th November at 7.0pm here in St Anne's.

We are also delighted that Bishop Donal McKeown has agreed to concelebrate the Eucharist, a traditional Sunday Mass, with Fr. Feargal that evening. He officiated when this composition was first performed in St. Mary's Church, Chapel Lane in 1992. A bi-lingual Mass booklet has been produced for use on the evening and this will serve as a souvenir of this great occasion.

Everyone is invited to join us for this very special Mass and to enjoy refreshments with us afterwards in the Parish Centre where you will be able to meet Bishop Donal, Patrick Davy and his team of 51 musicians and choir. It promises to be a memorable evening of prayer and reflection so we do hope you can join us.
