Sixth Sunday of Easter, Psalter Week 2 Year C
5th May 2013

First Reading: Acts 15:1-2, 22-29

Referred to as the Council of Jerusalem, this reading gives us an insight into the growth of the early Church. It offers us a model for collaborative ministry as well as indicating how the early Christian communities went about resolving disputes.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 66

*Let the peoples praise you, O God;
let all the peoples praise you -*

Second Reading: Apocalypse 21:10-14, 22-23

We often mention the new Jerusalem at funeral liturgies. It is the heavenly city where God dwells and it is the hope of all who live in faith. Just as the earthly Jerusalem was a holy city and place of pilgrimage for God’s chosen people. The new and heavenly Jerusalem founded on the faith of the Patriarchs and the teaching of the Apostles is the goal of our pilgrimage, our place of rest.

Gospel: John 14: 23-29

Jesus promises the gift of the Spirit or Advocate to his disciples. He reminds them that by keeping his commandments and following his way of love they will never be alone but draw strength from his abiding presence. Jesus is aware that things have happened in his ministry that the disciples do not understand and promises the Spirit will be a teacher unfolding the mysteries to them.

New Readers and Eucharistic Ministers

The Parish Liturgy Team are looking for some new faces and voices as Readers and Eucharistic Ministers to begin in July at the latest. Those who have been involved in these ministries over the past years have been very generous and dedicated and have helped to make our Parish Liturgy very participative. We will still be calling on their services but it would be good to include more parishioners in these very important ministries.

If you would be willing to nominate yourself or someone whom you consider suited to either of these ministries (provided they agree to it) please fill in the Reply Slip and leave in the Parish office or Sacristy.
