Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

23rd August 2015 Year B Psalter 1

First Reading: Joshua 24:1-2,15-18

In the final section of the Book, Joshua charges the leaders of the Israelites to remain faithful to the Lord and the covenant, warning of judgement should Israel leave YHWH and follow other gods; Joshua meets the people and reminds them of the Lord's great work for them, and the need to love the Lord alone. Joshua performs the concluding covenant ceremony, and sends the people to their inheritance.

Responsorial Psalm 33-

Taste and see that the Lord is good –

Second Reading: Ephesians 5:21-32

Paul, in his portrait of wholesome living, focuses upon marriage as a vocation which can especially witness to the love of Christ for us all. The husband and wife are called to become one and, through marriage to embody a unity that reminds us of Christ's indestructible bond with his Church. The living out of that union requires and engenders an ever deepening and authentic love.

Gospel: John 6:60-69

This Gospel passages follows directly from last week. Jesus has presented his teaching and people have literally walked away. Perhaps in despair, Jesus turns to his closest followers to ask what they think, directly challenging them "Are you going to walk away too?" It is Peter who responds – we know that you are the Holy One of God. What will YOU do?. Following the path of Christ is the way that leads to eternal life – a road worth traveling.

Mass of Thanksgiving Golden Jubilee of Religious Profession 1965 – 2015

Our heartfelt Congratulations to Sr. Mary, our Parish Sister, on reaching Fifty Years of faithful Religious Life. "Ad Multos Annos".

Having celebrated Fr. Conor's Ordination in June, the Lord has now also blessed us with a further celebration in Sr. Mary's Golden Jubilee.

Sr. Mary taught for some years in Rathmore and later went on to serve on various Councils of her Institute in Rome. This afforded her the opportunity of much travel around the Homes of the Institute abroad. Eventually she became Assistant Chaplain at Queens University, here in Belfast. Sr. Mary has brought all these accumulated gifts and talents to bear in her work and service among us here in St. Anne's.

Her Golden Jubilee, celebrated at a special Mass in St. Anne's on Saturday morning, was a welcome opportunity for us to express our gratitude. As Parish Priest, I, in particular, would like to express my deep appreciation for all that Sr. Mary has accomplished among us, with the fervent hope that her unique contribution will continue to enrich us in the years to come.

Sr Mary, on behalf of the Parish of St. Anne's,

"May the Lord bless you,

The God who made heaven and earth". (Ps. 134:3).
