If you have a flowering garden you are kindly requested to collect fresh petals and leave them in the Porch sometime on Sunday before the Procession takes place.

Pax Christi

Last Tuesday's reading from James 4:1 asked the question, "Where do these wars and battles between yourselves start?" (he answers it too!)

On 26th October 2007 an Austrian Conscientious Objector, Franz Jagerstatter was beatified. He had been beheaded on 9th August 1943 for his refusal to take up arms because of Christ's command to "Love your neighbour as yourself."

His Feast Day is 21st May.

There are some Pax Christi leaflets about him in the porch along with commemorative bookmarks for the Irish pacifist Francis Sheehy Skeffington. Please take them home with you and pray for peace in our war-torn world today.
