Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time
12th June 2016 Year C Psalter 3

First Reading: 2 Samuel 12:7-10,13
Nathan confronts David. God has given him so much and would give it all again, still David sought the forbidden treasure of Uriah's wife. Analogous with the fruit of the tree in the garden, the heart often longs for what it cannot have; leading to all kinds of difficulty. David shows remorse and God relents from his anger.

Responsorial Psalm 31
Forgive, Lord, the guilt of my sin –

Second Reading: Galatians 2:16, 19-21
True life in Christ. Paul eloquently explains that everything he says and does is rooted in the Paschal Mystery. Christ's free gift of himself, the ransom paid for sin. The fruit of the Tree of Life, the Cross is the promise of eternal life in God.

Gospel: Luke 7:36-8:3
The woman who showed Jesus her sorrow by tears and anointing is forgiven much because of her great love.

Recently Deceased
Please pray for the happy repose of the souls of: Rosemary McHugh, Mary Wasson, Michael Keenan (Antrim), Liam Byrne who died recently. Marie Murray, Louis McGreevy, Margaret & John Dow, Patrick Stewart, Catherine O'Neill, Maureen Kelly whose anniversaries are at this time and those whose names are in the Book of Remembrance..
Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them
May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace Amen.
