The Baptism of the Lord

8th January 2017 Year A Psalter 3

First Reading Isaiah 42:1-4, 6-7

The true disciple does not break the crushed reed or quench the wavering flame. He or She is gentle, kind and just.

Responsorial Psalm: 28

The Lord will bless his people –

Second Reading Acts 10:34-38

No individual, church, or denomination may lay exclusive claim to the God of Jesus. Any individual or grouping who do so are acting contrary to God's word, spoken in our second reading today to Cornelius and his household and by extension to the whole Church

Gospel reading Matthew 3:13-17

Jesus is reluctantly baptised by John in the River Jordan. Jesus now makes the dramatic transition from private citizen to public figure. His public ministry of witnessing to God's presence in the world has begun.
