Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

25th June 2017 Year A Psalter 4

First Reading: Jeremiah 20:10-13

Jeremiah expresses feelings being alone against the world, feeling abandoned and friendless for the sake of one's beliefs. The values of Christ are not always popular and in our world of rising individualism, we may feel ostracised for speaking on behalf of the marginalised and forgotten. In such cases, we need to remember that truth is truth, popular or not, and God will always protect those who speak it.

Responsorial Psalm; Psalm 68

In your great love, answer me, O God -

Second Reading: Romans 5:12-15

As humans, we have a tendency to self-serve. It takes profound experience of love to draw us away from self-interest and towards altruism and the service of others. Adam took the easy way out, gave in to temptation and blamed his wife. Jesus gave his life for those who did nothing to deserve it and gave us an experience of true love.

Gospel: Matthew 10:26-33

The world is large and diverse, frightening and complicated. The prevalence and accessibility of mass media adds weight to this. Observing what is happening in the world around us, it's easy to feel insignificant and without purpose. Jesus reminds us that our value is intrinsic, our worth cannot be compromised, created unique and infinitely loved by God, independent of who we are or what we have done. Some say we are a drop in the ocean, just another number, they too are infinitely loved by God.

Recently Deceased

Please pray for the happy repose of the souls of:

Patrick McKee, who died recently.

Artie Ferguson, Niall Donovan, Marie Irwin, Terence Tracey, Diarmuid McGrady

Neil McCarney, Sean O'Neill,

whose anniversaries are at this time and those whose names are in the Book of remembrance. May they rest in peace. Amen.

Pax Christi International

In this month of the commemoration of 50 years of Israeli occupation of the Palestinian territories, Pax Christi International urges the international community to reengage in a peace process in compliance with international law. After fifty years of occupation, enough is enough. This is the moment for a renewed commitment to end the violence and to reach a just and sustainable solution for Palestinians and Israelis in accordance with international law.

Victim Support N.I.

Victim Support NI, the leading organisation supporting victims of crime in Northern Ireland, has called for people to volunteer with the charity in the Down and Connor Diocese.

The organisation, which helps victims of crime in communities and courts throughout Northern Ireland, said more volunteers are required to deliver their crucial support services in the local community.

Volunteering involves providing emotional support and practical assistance to victims of crime, form filling and giving people the confidence to make their voices heard.

Accredited training and development courses are provided to volunteers equipping them with the knowledge and skills to deliver a first class support service to victims.

As well as upskilling, it's also a fantastic way to work as part of a caring and compassionate team while helping people in your local area. Expenses are also covered.

If you have an interest in this type of role you can apply via their website <http://www.victimsupportni.co.uk/volunteer/>, by emailing volunteer@victimsupportni.org.uk or by calling 02890277778.
