Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

16th September 2018 Year B Psalter 4

First Reading: Isaiah 50:5-9

It's hard not to retaliate in kind. Isaiah's suffering servant and the paradox of the Cross run contrary to many peoples' expectations of religion to provide comfort, support and peace. Accepting the cross; dying to selfishness; trying, hoping, wanting to do the right thing is the way to knowledge of our truest self.

Responsorial Psalm: 114

I will walk in the presence of the Lord, in the land of the living -

Second Reading: James 2:14-18

Our lives demonstrate what we believe. There are many in our families, our communities, throughout the world who bear the burden of the cross on a daily basis, bearing the marks of the crucified Christ. When we reach out to them in their suffering, assist them in their need, generously giving the gifts of time and presence, we give an account of the resurrection hope and faith within us.

Gospel: Mark 8:27-35

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done ... not change, not bent to my needs, wants or desires. It can be so easy to reduce God to who I want Him to be, to constrain, even domesticate the God of mystery; it's rather more difficult to let God reveal himself fully in my life. May we not put God to death because he fails to meet our human expectations.

Recently Deceased

Please pray for the happy repose of the souls of:

Josie Torney, Mena Lyons who died recently

Lily Hamilton, Gabrielle Durkan, Maeve Wilson, Frank Heaney whose anniversaries occur at this time and those whose names are in the Book of Remembrance. May they rest in peace. Amen.

Safeguarding Notice

All those who volunteer in the Parish to work with children or adults who may be vulnerable, must be vetted and must take on up-to-date training offered by the Safeguarding Office in the Diocese of Down and Connor. Since the beginning of September 2017 updated training has been available. Many volunteers in the Parish undertook the new updated training during the last year and we thank them for that. For anyone who has not yet attended one of the new training sessions, the following explains who needs to attend the different levels of training, how to apply for a place and includes the dates for Level 1 Training only. The dates for Level 2 will be available in October. Safeguarding our children and adults who may be vulnerable is extremely important to all of us and we must ensure that we are following the advice and guidance as laid down for us by the Safeguarding Office. Thank you all for your co-operation with this.

The Parish Safeguarding Committee.

St Anne's One World Group Wednesday 18th September 2018

Notice of Special meeting at 7.30pm – Fr Tony Coney update from St Bernadette's – Join or help out with One World Group / Ceili Dance class - Please come and join us.

Faith and Life Convention

Bishop Treanor invites you to attend our fifth Faith and Life Convention on Saturday 29th September 2018 in Our Lady and St Patrick's College, Knock, Belfast. Doors open at 8.45am with registration taking place from 9:00am. The Convention begins at 10:00am. The Faith and Life Convention is a forum for people from across the diocese, and beyond, to gather together and to take part in a range of conversations about the meaning of faith and its relevance to every area of our lives. This year we are delighted to welcome Cardinal Óscar Andrés Rodríguez Maradiaga, S.D.B. as our keynote speaker. In the afternoon each delegate will have the opportunity to take part in two workshops from a range of twenty seven. The workshops fill up quickly so it's best to book now! Perhaps the best part of the day is the pleasure of meeting up with a great crowd of committed people from all over the diocese and beyond. Online booking is available at: www.faithandlifeconvention.org Cost per delegate £20.00

The Children's Liturgy Programme

Takes place at 6. 30pm Mass on Saturdays and at 12 00 Mass on Sundays. We are currently very short of volunteers and urgently need help if we are to keep the programme going. Anyone aged 16 and over is welcome to help but we also make a special appeal to parents as this programme is for your children and they enjoy it. If you could help at one Mass every third week please give your name and contact details to the parish office

St Anne's Parish Dinner Save The Date !!!!!
