Twenty – Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

21st October 2018 Year B Psalter 1

First Reading: Isaiah 53:10-11

This section of the Prophet Isaiah returns to the theme of the suffering servant. The Messiah who will come will not be a worldly king, but a servant of all – a servant who will give his life for others. He will become the scape-goat, though innocent, taking on our sins and our failings. He will win life for us.

Responsorial Psalm: 32

May your love be upon us O Lord, as we place all our hope in you -

Second Reading: Hebrews 4:14-16

Once again, the Letter to the Hebrews assures us that though Christ is the one true High Priest, he is the one who understands us. Christ has been tempted in every way. Christ understands the challenges and difficulties of our lives. And because Christ understands us, he is ever merciful.

Gospel: Mark 10:35-45

Those closest to Jesus must continue at the school of discipleship. Though Christ has constantly reminded them that he is not a messiah who will bring worldly power, they fail to understand. They ask for glory and reward. But following Christ is about service. The follower of Christ is 'not to be served, but to serve'.

Tobar Mhuire Retreat: Loss and Blessings:

November is a time when we remember loved ones who have died. At times of loss we are often too hurt or too busy looking after others to reflect upon the blessings we have received from those who have died. This day of prayer; reflection and symbols, will be a chance to take time aside; to reflect upon the memory of those who have gone before us, and to give thanks for those who have touched our lives. You are welcome to bring a picture or memento of the person you are remembering. Saturday 10th November 2018. 10.30am – 4.00pm Day led by: Brian McKee Cost: £30, includes tea/coffee light lunch
