Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

11th November 2018 Year B Psalter 4

First Reading: 1 Kings 17:10-16

Sometimes a Bible reading is best understood by listening to the words of Jesus. The best explanation of this reading is found in MK 9:41, "For truly, I say to you, whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ will by no means lose his reward".

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 145
My soul gives praise to the Lord -

Second Reading: Hebrews 9-24-28

The author of Hebrews is insistent that the sacrifice of Jesus is one, permanent, definitive and totally effective: "He does not have to offer himself again and again, like the high priest going to the sanctuary year after year." The whole Christian life is understood as a lived-out "yes" to what the Lord has done for us.

Gospel: Mark 12:38-44

While Jesus was impressed with the generosity of the widow, he may have been less than impressed by the Temple system that could make an elderly woman feel obligated to offer all she had to live on. This challenging interpretation is supported by the fact that Jesus refers, in this same reading, to the swallowing of the property of widows.
