Apostolic Work

St Anne's Branch wish to thank all those members of the parish and others who so generously contributed the sum of £630.00 for their two recent fundraising events, this money will be sent to priests and nuns working on the Missions in countries throughout the world. We also wish to thank all those parishioners who have donated to our Apostolic Work throughout the year

JESUS HEALS:

Do you feel weighed down by the way life is going? Do you need a touch of God's rest and healing? Jesus invites you personally to come to Him and he will give you rest and restoration. In collaboration with St. John's parish, Koinonia John the Baptist Ireland invite you to join us for a special moment of prayer in Saint John's Church (444 Falls Road, Belfast) on Wednesday 16th January from 7pm-9.30pm. As we begin this new year it is an opportunity to entrust whatever we're carrying to Jesus our healer, Saviour and friend. Br. Darren O'Reilly (a consecrated brother based in the Braid) will guide us in reflecting on God's Word and promises. There will also be the opportunity for individual prayer during the service, and please join us afterward for a cuppa in the parish hall. stions please contact Mary on 07821 190906 or Br. Darren at darren@koinonia.ie

The Word of God

1st Reading: This ancient prophecy of Isaiah is applied to the wise men, who travel afar to see the infant King.

Psalm 71: All the nations shall fall prostrate before you, O Lord

2nd Reading: St Paul makes it clear that Christ is for everyone, with no distinction as to colour, country or class. This is why the wise men are traditionally depicted as belonging to different races.

Gospel: Herod tries to insinuate his wicked plan right into the joyful pilgrimage of the Magi, but God is not outdone by Herod's cunning.

Pastoral Council Meeting: Tue. 15th Jan. 7pm Parochial House
