Bereavement Support Group

Service of Remembrance for Children and Babies who have Died at the Dawn of Life on Monday 16th May at 7pm. We again offer an invitation to all families who have lost a baby before or after birth, or a child of any age, at any time in the past to join us as St Annes remembers these much-loved members of our community. A short service led by Deacon Pat will end in the blessing of our Garden of Remembrance.

Please complete a slip found at back of Church with your child's details if they are not yet written into the Book of Remembrance. Alternatively please leave your contact details with the Office if you wish the slip to be emailed or for BSG to contact you by phone for the details.

BSG would be grateful if any parishioner could help out on the night with the refreshments afterwards. Please leave your name with the Parish Office. Thank you!

We Remember Them

Recently Deceased: Paul McCotter, Elizabeth Magee, Thomas McCamley.

Foodbank: The collection boxes are available outside the church again from Monday 25th April. Thank you for your continuing generosity. Your giving makes all the difference these difficult days

Music in St. Anne's – Would you be willing to help with our liturgical music in church? Do you like to sing? Do you play a musical instrument? Have you been an important part of our music ministry before Covid-19? We would love to have you share once again your talent for music! Come along to a meeting on Wednesday 25th May at 7.30pm. Everyone is most welcome, and you only need a love for music and worship. Why not bring along a friend too?

Liturgy of the Word

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles 14:21-27

Paul and Barnabas went back through Lystra and Iconium to Antioch. They put fresh heart into the disciples, encouraging them to persevere in the faith.

'We all have to experience many hardships' they said, 'before we enter the kingdom of God.'

In each of these churches they appointed elders, and with prayer and fasting they commended them to the Lord in whom they had come to believe.

They passed through Pisidia and reached Pamphylia. Then after proclaiming the word at Perga they went down to Attalia and from there sailed for Antioch, where they had originally been commended to the grace of God for the work they had now completed.

On their arrival they assembled the church and gave an account of all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the door of faith to the pagans.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 144

Response: I will bless your name for ever, O God my King.

1. The Lord is kind and full of compassion, slow to anger, abounding in love. How good is the Lord to all, compassionate to all his creatures. Response

2. All your creatures shall thank you, O Lord, and your friends shall repeat their blessing. They shall speak of the glory of your reign and declare your might, O God, to make known to men your mighty deeds and the glorious splendour of your reign. Response

3. Yours is an everlasting kingdom; your rule lasts from age to age. Response

SECOND READING

A reading from the book of the Apocalypse 21:1-5

I, John saw a new heaven and a new earth ; the first heaven and the first earth had disappeared now, and there was no longer any sea. I saw the holy city, and the new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, as beautiful as a bride all dressed for her husband. Then I heard a loud voice call from the throne, 'You see this city? Here God lives among men. He will make his home among them; they shall be his people, and he will be their God; his name is God-with-them. He will wipe away all tears from their eyes; there will be no more death, and no more mourning or sadness. The world of the past has gone.'

Then the One sitting on the throne spoke:

'Now I am making the whole of creation new.'

Gospel Acclamation Jn 13: 34

Alleluia, alleluia!

*I give you a new commandment:
love one another; just as I have loved you.
Alleluia!*

GOSPEL

A reading from the Gospel according to John 13:31-35

When Judas had gone Jesus said:

'Now has the Son of Man been glorified, and in him God has been glorified. If God has been glorified in him, God will in turn glorify him in himself, and will glorify him very soon.'

My little children, I shall not be with you much longer.

I give you a new commandment:

love one another; just as I have loved you, you also must love one another.

By this love you have for one another, everyone will know that you are my disciples.'
